

ENACTING CLAUSE

(U.S. Code, Title 1, Sections 101-105)

[Enacting and Resolving Clauses and Sections of Bills and Joint Resolutions and Titles of Appropriation Bills]

The enacting clause of all Acts of Congress shall be in the following form: "Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled."

The resolving clause of all joint resolutions shall be in the following form: "Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled."

No enacting or resolving words shall be used in any section of an Act or resolution of Congress except in the first.

Each section shall be numbered, and shall contain, as nearly as may be, a single proposition of enactment.

The style and title of all Acts making appropriations for the support of Government shall be as follows: "An Act making appropriations (here insert the object) for the year ending September 30 (here insert the calendar year)."
