INTERPRETATION OF LEGISLATION

See also “Interpretation of Legislation,” pp. 1029–1030; “Interpretation of Bills,” pp. 235, 880; “Interpretation of Amendments,” p. 64.

The Presiding Officer has no authority to interpret legislation. The Presiding Officer has no authority to explain the substance of an amendment, or to indicate the respective subject matters of the divisions of an amendment.

INTERROGATION BY SPEAKING SENATOR

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

INVESTIGATIONS AND INQUIRIES

See also “Departmental Inquiries,” p. 799; for other characteristics, including consideration of Senate resolutions, see Resolutions,” pp. 1202–1213, “Contingent Fund,” pp. 691–692.

2 Dec. 9, 1985, 99–1, Record, p. 35327.