ing business,⁴ but merely suspends its consideration until the privileged business is disposed of.⁵

The status of unfinished business is not changed by the adoption of a motion to take up a conference report.⁶ When brought up before the end of the Morning Hour, it suspends the unfinished business until the conference report is disposed of.⁷

The adoption of a motion to consider or the consideration of privileged business does not affect the status of the unfinished business or the pending business.⁸

A privileged matter under consideration in the Senate may be displaced by another privileged matter by a majority vote;⁹ likewise, a privileged matter may be displaced by a majority vote to proceed to the consideration of a non-privileged matter.¹⁰ A motion to proceed to the consideration of a bill is not displaced by an executive session or the transaction of privileged business or business transacted by unanimous consent.¹¹

It is not in order, upon the request of a Senator, to lay before the Senate a resolution as a privileged matter; a motion is necessary to proceed to its consideration.¹²

A resolution authorizing the Sergeant at Arms of the Senate, after a recusant witness was taken into custody, to release him upon the furnishing of bond,¹³ or a resolution instructing the Secretary of the Senate to return to the President a treaty to which the Senate had failed to advise and consent is privileged in character and does not have to lie over a legislative day under the rule.¹⁴ The
